

OFFICERS FEARED DEMONSTRATION

Allen Brothers Closely Watched During Trial in Greensboro.

Greensboro, N. C., March 14.—But for a combination of circumstances United States officers here believe that the Allen brothers, who figured in the courtroom tragedy at Hillsville, Va., today, would have attempted a demonstration in the United States Court here a year ago, when Judge Boyd sentenced them to a term of two and a half years in the Federal prison at Atlanta for perjury. Attorneys made an appeal, and only recently the Circuit Court of Appeals, sitting at Richmond, ordered a new trial. The case is to be retried here in April.

Sidna Allen, a brother of Floyd Allen, was first tried with Preston Dinkens on a charge of counterfeiting. Dinkens was convicted and Allen acquitted, the former getting a five-year sentence. Later, District Attorney A. L. Holton indicted Allen for perjury in connection with his testimony in the counterfeiting case, and he was tried a year ago. At that time the four brothers were present, and during the two days of the trial they occupied front seats in the courtroom. One, Floyd Allen, was frequently found loitering in the marshal's office, and he was apparently bent upon gaining the friendship of the office attachés.

During the trial information was given the United States marshal that Allen was leaving Floyd county, Virginia, to come here for the trial of the brothers, the Allen family did not attempt a demonstration. Immediately after sentence was passed the appeal was taken, and the brothers, with other mountain friends present, were taken to the jail. The Allen family is well known by United States officers stationed here. They have always been considered desperate, and have engaged in frequent clashes with officers. Floyd Allen, when here, boasted of carrying thirteen bullet holes in his body, five of which, he said, were put there by a brother. He related at the time that he and a brother engaged in a pistol duel, both falling with the first fire, and then, while prostrate, emptying their revolvers into one another. He later recovered and settled their grievances.

Want to Help Capture Them. Charlotte, N. C., March 14.—United States Secret Service Agent H. E. Thomas, who comes from the mountain sections in which Sidna and Floyd Allen live, and has known them personally for twelve years, has applied to the chief of the bureau for permission to go after the outlaws. Thomas, who is a native of the mountains, has been shot three times, and has been shot three times. Thomas declares that after today's crime the Allen family will be taken dead alive. Knowing their haunts and every foot of the mountains in which they live, he is anxious to aid the Commonwealth of Virginia in bringing them to speedy justice.

Annual Session in Norfolk. Norfolk, Va., March 14.—The second annual meeting of the Virginia Soil Conservation Association was held here today with representatives present from the principal cities and towns of the State. Mayor Riddick delivered the address of welcome, following the opening speech by President W. A. Kleeblatt, of Richmond. The final session will be held to-morrow.

Will Meet at Williamsburg. Williamsburg, Va., March 14.—The first annual meeting of the Virginia Peninsula Good Roads Association will be held in the courthouse of Williamsburg on March 20, for the purpose of electing officers and considering ways and means of increasing the membership and raising additional funds for the work. A complimentary luncheon will be served.

STRIKE AT SIX MILLS IS ENDED

Approximately 7,000 Operatives Will Return to Work in Lawrence Plants.

Lawrence, Mass., March 14.—The strike at six of the textile mills in this city is ended. It remains in effect at seven mills here and one in North Andover. The Everett mill, which has kept its employees locked out since the strike started, is understood to be contemplating reopening soon at an increased wage scale.

At a mass-meeting this afternoon the strikers voted to declare off the strike at the Washington, Wood, and Prospect mills of the American Woolen Company, the Atlantic Cotton Mills and the Kunkard Worsted Mills. Approximately 7,000 operatives will return to work at these plants Monday. The mass-meeting also accepted the recommendation of the strike committee that the strike should be continued against seven mills which have announced a wage increase, but have not made sufficiently clear details of the advance to satisfy the strikers' action.

As a result of today's action it is estimated about 3,000 operatives will remain on strike, not including the 2,000 locked out at the Everett cotton mills.

Increase of 5 Per Cent. New Bedford, Mass., March 14.—Twenty-five thousand textile operatives here will receive an increase of 5 per cent. in wages March 25. The New Bedford Manufacturers' Association decided upon this advance at a meeting today held to act upon a demand from the New Bedford Textile Council for a 10 per cent. advance.

Private W. C. Terry. First Virginia Cavalry, died at the Soldiers' Home yesterday afternoon at the age of 73. Mr. Terry was in the service during the Civil War. He was born in Halifax county, Va., November 9, 1842, and in 1862 he went to Mecklenburg, where he was in the same company as Captain E. A. O'Hara, who says that he had a great record as a fighting soldier. His remains will be sent to Mecklenburg over the Southern Railway this morning at 6:10 o'clock for burial.

Settled Out of Court. E. J. Devine was dismissed from the dock yesterday by Circuit Court, yesterday on motion of the plaintiff's attorney, having been settled out of court.

"MACHINE" IN GOOD ORDER

Underwood Brings Sugar Debate to Sudden Close. Washington, March 14.—Opponents of the Democratic "free sugar" tariff revision bill today directed a fiery artillery fire against it in the general debate in the House. The bombardment was in response to a speech of 6:09 o'clock by Chairman Underwood, of the Ways and Means Committee, who resumed the debate against the limiting speeches to five minutes each. The bill, which was introduced today, will probably be passed before adjournment.

When Mr. Underwood suggested shortly after 6 o'clock that a recess be taken until 7:30, Mr. Mann gave notice that he would insist that a quorum, not only of the House, but of the Ways and Means Committee as well, be present throughout the continuance of the session.

"I withdraw my request," said Mr. Underwood promptly. "It is perfectly apparent that the maintenance of a quorum is impossible, and I move that we adjourn."

The House promptly adjourned. The action, however, aroused the ire of a number of Democrats from sugar States, who had prepared lengthy addresses in opposition to the bill. There was much muttering and charges that "a rule" had been invoked without being properly invoked. The Underwood machine had worked perfectly.

JURY IS COMPLETED

First Witness in Annie Crawford's Case Will Be Heard To-Day. New Orleans, La., March 14.—The jury which will decide the fate of Annie Crawford was finally completed today, after three days' effort had exhausted one regular and two extra panels of veniremen, and to-morrow the State will place the first of its witnesses upon the stand in its effort to prove that Elsie Crawford died of morphine poisoning administered by Miss Crawford seemed pleased when the jury finally was secured. For the first time since she has been in court she raised her heavy black veil and laughed and talked with a woman visitor and newspaper men.

Dr. H. D. King is the sole witness thus far summoned by the defense, and probably will appear as an expert in the case. The State's first witness will be Dr. A. L. Metz, City Chemist, who examined Elsie Crawford's stomach and intestines; Dr. J. A. O'Hara, coroner, and Dr. C. William Groetsch, assistant coroner.

MISS CATHERINE BIDDLE DEAD.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 14.—Miss Catherine C. Biddle, a member of one of the oldest Philadelphia families and noted for her charities, died early today. During the Civil War Miss Biddle acted as nurse for soldiers at the Episcopal Hospital here, and for the last fifty years had devoted herself to charitable and philanthropic work in the Kensington mill district of this city. She built three churches in that section.

She was ninety-six years old and was educated in Lexington, Ky., where for some years prior to 1845 she made her home.

WILL ASK COURT FOR REPEALING

Defeated Parties in "Patent Monopoly" Case Supported by Department of Justice.

Washington, March 14.—Hundreds of applications for copies of the "patent monopoly" decision had to-day reached the Supreme Court of the United States and quickly exhausted the available supply of printed copies of the opinion just from the press.

Foremost among the applicants were those from the Senators and the House, who are bent on amending the law to avoid the consequences of the Supreme Court's decision. They want to have the right to restrict the use of unpatented articles on their patents.

Many of the inquiries were directed to ascertaining how far "cut-rate" stores would be affected by the opinion. Justice Lurton yesterday stated that there would be no collision between the rule under the patent law which he was laying down and the rule pronounced by Justice Hughes last year in Miles Medical Company vs. Park & Sons.

In the latter case Judge Hughes pointed out the sales restriction upon articles, such as patent medicines, which really are under the protection of the patent laws, was invalid as against public policy.

The defeated parties in the "patent monopoly" case today asked the Supreme Court to set aside its decision in the case. They will have the opportunity of the Department of Justice, which is intensely interested in the question because of its vital bearing upon the administration of the Sherman antitrust law.

Arthur von Brieson, of New York, representative of Sidney H. Hillman, one of the defendants in the Supreme Court's four to three decision was directed to contact with the attorney-general Wickham and Solicitor-General Lehmann to-morrow as to the legal procedure for the reopening of the case.

TAFT TO HELP SLEMP

May Mean Another Great Battle for Ninth District.

Washington, March 14.—Congressman William H. Taft, who is to-day, and upon leaving it was learned that President Taft told him that if he secured the nomination at Chicago he would carry the battle into Virginia. This means that in all probability the Ninth Congressional District will see one of the hottest battles in its history between Congressman Slemp and whoever shall be nominated to oppose him by the Democrats.

will carry the battle into Virginia," are the words the President said to have used in talking with Mr. Slemp, and this is taken to mean that the President's overwhelming manner in which Virginia delegates will be tendered him at Chicago, and the constant loyalty which Mr. Slemp has shown to the President, the latter feels that some kind of reward is due the Ninth District Congressman.

As a matter of fact, no man in the Senate is weaker than Taft for the success of President Taft and his administration than Mr. Slemp, and the President is fully aware of this. Of course, the President is not likely to become dangerous to the administration probably would not take a hand, but the word of the President is a campaign in the exigency of the situation demands it.

GRACE IS DYING

He Continues to Insist That His Wife Should Live.

Atlanta, Ga., March 14.—With the lower part of his body pronounced already dead, Eugene H. Grace, whose spinal cord is paralyzed by a bullet lodged by Grace to have been shot by his wife, is expected to die within the next twenty-four hours, according to the doctors here. He is now lying in a hospital in the city, and he is facing death with stoic nerve.

He continues to insist that his wife should live.

Although Grace last night made an ante-mortem statement to his attorneys and members of his family, Chief of Police Leary stated to-night that the dying man will be asked to make another to the officers of the law.

In his story to his lawyers Grace is declared to have told in detail how his wife shot him; that she remained with him several hours after he was shot, that he pleaded for a doctor and then begged for water. The attorney declined to give out the statement for publication.

Mrs. Daisy Ople Grace spent a sorrowful day in her cell in the county jail as a result of the news of her husband's condition.

"Oh, why did they not operate on him," she is said to have exclaimed when informed of the doctor's decision that an operation would be useless.

Later, a well-known criminal lawyer, was to-day added to the counsel for Mrs. Grace, and with Attorney John W. Moore and G. A. Brance held a conference with the prisoner late to-day. They declined to discuss the case after the conference.
